

No. _____

In The Supreme Court Of The United States

Application/Request for Extension of Time to file my Petition for Writ of Certiorari

Geoffrey Lloyd Mangers

v.

Superior Court

How can I "borrow time from the future"?

It must cost a fortune.

I was expecting my Writ Petition to be rejected by all of the higher courts and have to conditionally retract my "Q.E.D." on p. 3 of it. And was quite surprised that both our state Appellate and Supreme Courts picked it up. Apparently because it has an "MH" in the case number. Anyway, as a result, all of my time has been tied up with trying to meet their deadlines. Which are thoroughly exhausting. All of this is new to me.

My understanding from my discussion with Ms. Amy Allen at the California Supreme Court is that I've exhausted all my options here in the California State court system. If I'm mistaken I'd very much appreciate knowing of it.

The letter from your court by Ms. Gail Johnson is dated April 10, 2012. And tells me I have 60 days to make the corrections and that I must have the lower court opinions appended. The rules say that if I wish to ask for an extension I must do so at least 10 days in advance.

Which is impossible to do since the letter from the California Supreme Court denying my Application for Relief from Default is dated July 6, 2012. I received it July 7 (as I recall).

I'm a novice in all of this and moving as quickly as I can and dearly dearly wish I could make it happen faster.

And I have served this Request upon my website: www.publicforall.com.

On this day of July 16, 2012, I declare under penalty of perjury that all of this is true and correct.

Geoffrey Mangers